MARY KRAFT CAN-STRUCTS A SOLUTION TO HUNGER
Mary Kraft Can-Structs a Solution to Hunger

Join Mary Kraft Staffing and HR Solutions as they collect canned goods for those in need.

Lutherville, MD (October 14, 2009) – The start of fall always comes with crisp weather, leaves changing colors and the end of the vacation season. For Mary Kraft Staffing and HR Solutions, it also signifies the start of their Annual Canned Food Drive. The company regularly holds food and clothing drives during the holiday season. Over the past 9 years, Mary Kraft has developed a partnership with the Baltimore County Department of Social Services by supporting various programs including a school supplies drive, Thanksgiving Canned Food Drive and adopting families at Christmas. The idea to hold a Fall Canned Food Drive spawned from the holiday events and has become a tradition for the company. “It is so rewarding to know that we’re helping fill the pantries that keep the homeless fed during the colder months,” said Karen Brown, who is in charge of organizing the Fall Canned Food Drive every year. The company will also be supporting The Fund for Social Welfare’s Coats-4-Kids, and encourages you to donate to the cause. Mary Kraft will be offering free press to those who participate. Email jessica@marykraft.com to learn more.

Next time you’re in the area, please stop by their office and donate non-perishable food items. Mary Kraft will be collecting food until Thursday, November 19, 2009, and the Thanksgiving Canned Food Drive will likely start soon thereafter. While Social Services are in need of all food items, peanut butter, jelly, spaghetti sauce, canned vegetables and soup are in high demand. Toiletries and cold weather items such as gloves and hats are also in very high demand.
